

Computer Science Section

Purpose

The purpose of this section is to enhance Christian undergraduate computer science education by fostering scholarship and teaching for faculty and graduate students. This section offers opportunities to stimulate dialog with other faculty members and graduate students through sessions on curriculum, research, and collaboration across institutions.