

Christianity, Literature and Language Section

The steering committee members will gather each year during the conference to fellowship, review proposals, seek Calls for Papers and to discuss proposed sessions. Much of the business will be conducted over email, but attendance at the conference is expected of each steering committee member.

Four year terms will be used whenever possible to help maintain a bit of continuity and to enhance involvement of new scholars, participants and leaders.